

I have heard rumors
that Sinclair
intends to force its stations to air an anti-Kerry program
right before the presidential elections. If true,
could you tell me
how much Sinclair
and/or its subsidiaries have contributed to the Bush campaign?
Shouldn't such programming be
labeled accordingly?
will there be a
pro-Kerry or anti-Bush program
immediately following this program?

If it is true that Sinclair uses the public airwaves free
of charge, how is it
that it can air such a one-sided
politically
motivated program?
A free press has always been a cornerstone in our DEMOCRACY.

To have a huge media conglomerate abusing
its power this way
proves that we need to legislate media
ownership more carefully. History books should not show that the Soviet Union had a more equitable media than we do.

Ellen Moeller